

SGC ATTENDANCE GUIDELINES

Preamble

This document will hereby serve as the SEBS Governing Council (SGC) Attendance Guidelines. The SGC Attendance Guidelines serve an important function in the governing body. They act as a guideline for day-to-day procedures as well as further notation to the SGC Constitution and the SGC Standing Rules. It should be noted that the Attendance Guidelines are a document separate from the Constitution and the Standing Rules and thereby not liable to the same amendment procedures. Thus, making the Attendance Guidelines a more adaptive document that can be changed when necessary. This document will nullify all past legislature that contradicts the material contained within. This document will be made accessible to all students from the Rutgers Student Life Office.

ARTICLE 1: THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE SGC ATTENDANCE GUIDELINES

Section I: Legitimacy of the SGC Attendance Guidelines

- i The legitimacy of the SGC Attendance Guidelines to govern the attendance policy of all SGC members to all SGC meetings, SGC executed events, and SGC retreat has been established in the SGC Standing Rules at Article IX Section 3.

Section II: Constitutionality of the SGC Standing Rules

- i. All Standing Rules established by the Internal Affairs Committee must agree with rules defined by the SGC Constitution.
- ii The constitutionality of the SGC Attendance Guidelines will be reviewed annually during the spring of each term by the Internal Affairs Committee. When reviewing proposed Attendance Guidelines, the Internal Affairs Committee must ensure that these rules are allowable under the SGC Constitution.

Section III: Amendments to the SGC Standing Rules

- i. Amendments to the Standing Rules can be conducted as written in the SGC Standing Rules in Article IX Section 3.

ARTICLE 2: SGC ATTENDANCE SYSTEM

Section I: General Attendance Policy

- i. The Recording Secretary will take the attendance of all SGC members at the beginning of each meeting.

ii. Attendance of each SGC member will be recorded in a database maintained by the Internal Affairs Committee.

iii. Absences to any SGC related meeting/event will result in a deduction of absences. Three absences are allowed; one unexcused and two unexcused.

iv. Absences to SGC committee meetings will count independently from the SGC related meetings/events attendance policy. Absences to any SGC committee meetings will also result in a deduction of absences. Three absences are allowed; one unexcused and two unexcused.

Section II: SGC Attendance Waivers

- i. Attendance waivers will be distributed to all SGC Members during the beginning of each semester to ensure that all attendance policies are well understood.
- ii. All SGC Members must sign and submit the waivers to the Internal Affairs Committee. Failure to do so will result in the removal from office.

Section III: Minimum Attendance for All Members

- i. Members with more than the three allowed absences (one unexcused and two excused) will be sent for judicial review conducted by the Internal Affairs Committee to investigate on the matter.
